

Derby's Historic Landmarks

1 Warren Riverview Park

*Arkansas River Crossing
321 W. Market St.*

Features a rich history of the crossing of the Arkansas River and its bridges.

2 Derby Police Department

*El Paso Business District
229 N. Baltimore Ave.*

On July 11, 1871, a town plat was filed in Sedgwick County and business boomed.

3 Madison Avenue Central Park

*Smith Farm and St. Mary School
512 E. Madison Ave.*

In the 1950s, the Smith Farm sold to build homes for the post-war baby boom and for St. Mary's church and school.

4 Derby Historical Museum

*Derby Public School and Historical Museum
710 E. Market St.*

Built in 1924, Derby's former K-12 school is now home to the community's historical museum.

5 Lauber Farm and Silo

*Brookwood & Redwood St.
North of Riley Park*

The once expansive Lauber Farm is now home to familiar places such as the Derby Recreation Center and Derby Middle School.

6 El Paso Cemetery

700 E. Kay St.

The original cemetery included only the southeast corner of the cemetery and is the final resting place of many influential Derby citizens.

7 Garrett Park

*Garrett Homestead
1100 E. Chet Smith Ave.*

Alexander and Margaret Garrett were the first settlers to put down roots in Derby. Visit the Derby Historical Museum to see the original sod home they constructed.

Map Key

- Car Route
- Bike Path/Sidewalk
- ⋯ Bike Path/Street

Enjoy the landmarks by either bike or car. The majority of the bike route is on sidewalks with the exception of a small portion of residential streets leading to #5 Lauber Farm and Silo landmark. The bike route is a total of 3.5 miles.

● Although not designated as one of Derby's landmarks, the Round Barn (1910) located near Woodlawn & 95th St. is one of the oldest structures in the Derby area.