Derby's Fourth Annual Spring Into Art Set for April 25

Derby, Kansas – Mark your calendar for Sunday, April 25, 2021 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. for the fourth annual Spring Into Art event at Madison Avenue Central Park, 512 E. Madison Ave.

“I am excited the community can hold this event after a hiatus in 2020,” said Mayor Randy White. “An outdoor event like this is the perfect opportunity to enjoy the park and celebrate the arts.”

The free, family-friendly event will feature art for sale, live music, art kits to go, the Kansas Grown Farmers Market, food trucks and snack options.

A few spots are still available for art vendors. If you're interested in applying, visit DerbyKS.com/SpringIntoArt.

Entertainment includes:

- Harrison Steele, 11 a.m.
 - www.facebook.com/harrisonsteelemusic
- Makayla Brownlee, 12:30 p.m.
 - American Idol contestant, 2020
 - www.youtube.com/channel/UCceyXb88lk-dozL0oRHplvw
- AJ McCausland Band, 2:30 p.m.
 - www.facebook.com/AJMcCauslandMusic

The event will be held rain or shine. Inclement weather will move most activities inside The Venue.

This event is a joint effort of the City of Derby, Derby Recreation Commission, Derby Public Library and Derby Public Schools. For more information, visit DerbyKS.com/SpringIntoArt.

Due to COVID-19, activities requiring close contacts are canceled or altered for social distancing. Masks are required and can be removed when safely distanced from others at this outside event or when eating/drinking.
